Dear Rex,

It was a great pleasure to meet you and have you perform for our Experimental Aircraft Association chapter members and friends. With the diverse age of the audience, it is not always easy to find entertainment that will appeal to everyone. You did a great job of judging the audience and providing material that worked for the entire group.

Your performances not only met, but also exceeded all of our expectations. I have attended many of these banquets over the years. I only remember one other speaker or entertainer that has ever received the standing ovation that you received (A very tough group)!

The goal was to make the women feel like they belonged and want to participate in more of our (guy) functions. Judging from the many women that I have talked to, that goal was definitely met. The only problem anyone mentioned was hurting from laughing so much. Great Job! If you ever need a recommendation, please have them contact me, or any of the board members.

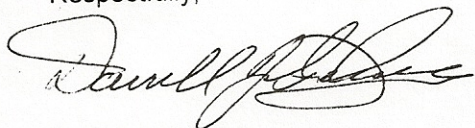

The benchmark that you have set has however created a dilemma for me as to how to meet or exceed your performance next year. Thanks again for the great night of entertainment. I will give you a call when we come to Illinois to visit our son. Maybe we can take an aerial tour of the area when I am there. I will be happy to provide the transportation for that tour.

Please greet your bride Sarah, who I feel I already know. Also, tell her "Thank You" for not only teaching you everything you needed to know, but also allowing you to share it with us.

Thanks again for a great and very successful evening.

God Bless in all you do!

Respectfully,

Darrell J. Gilmore
