Dear Rex:

As our fiscal year comes to a close, I've had an opportunity to look back on the events of the past 12 months. Your performance at our Holiday Party was definitely a highlight for our company!

I want to thank you for coming to our party and sharing your humor. We received many wonderful comments about the show. The bit you did on the color of women's shoes was a perfect fit for a women's fashion retailer, it really hit home with many of us. It was great to find a comedian that could be funny without offending.

Good luck to you in the future, and thanks again for an excellent performance!

Sincerely,

Tracy Neubauer
